

ICO News Article: Information Commissioner: Organisations need to do more to help people affected by data breaches

Information Commissioner John Edwards has today urged organisations across the country to recognise the real-world impact of data breaches.

ICO Statement: Statement on ICO's work to protect children online

"Children see sharing their personal information online as necessary to avoid social exclusion, our new research has found.

ICO News Article: Global privacy authorities issue follow-up joint statement on data scraping after industry engagement

We and several global counterparts are highlighting how social media companies can better protect personal information, as concerns grow about mass scraping of personal information within social media platforms, including to support artificial intelligence systems.

This eAlert is intended for staff, both within Digital Health and Care Wales and other NHS organisations, who may have an interest in Information Governance issues that affect the NHS in Wales. If you have any articles which you feel would also be useful to colleagues, please feel free to forward them for inclusion in our next edition.

Digital Health and Care Wales is not responsible for the contents or reliability of the linked websites and does not necessarily endorse the views expressed within them. Listing shall not be taken as endorsement of any kind. We cannot guarantee that these links will work all of the time and we have no control over availability of the linked pages.