ICO News: ICO reassures employers they can share staff data in a mental health emergency

The Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) has published new guidance to give employers more certainty about sharing their workers' personal details in a mental health emergency.

ICO News: Information Commissioner calls for senior leaders to take transparency seriously

Following taking regulatory action against five public organisations for their continued failings to meet their obligations under the Freedom of Information (FOI) Act, the ICO has reminded organisations that transparency is essential if the people and communities are to have confidence in the way that public services are delivered.
