

13eg O Awst / 13th August 2021

ICO News: ICO consults on how organisations can continue to protect people’s personal data when it’s transferred outside of the UK
The Information Commissioner’s Office (ICO) has launched a public consultation on its draft international data transfer agreement (IDTA) and guidance.

ICO Blog: Call for views: data protection and employment practices
Anulka Clarke, ICO Acting Director of Regulatory Assurance introduces the ICOs call for views in this blog as they look to update our Employment Practices guidance.

News Article: Apple plans to scan US iPhones for child sexual abuse images
Apple will scan photo libraries stored on iPhones in the US for known images of child sexual abuse, the company says, drawing praise from child protection groups but crossing a line that privacy campaigners warn could have dangerous ramifications. The company will also examine the contents of end-to-end encrypted messages for the first time.
[Relates to the US]

ICO Fine: Nuisance call blocker company fined £170,000 for making almost 200,000 illegal marketing calls
The Information Commissioner’s Office (ICO) has fined Yes Consumer Solutions Limited (YCSL) £170,000 for making 188,493 unsolicited direct marketing calls to customers registered with the Telephone Preference Service (TPS).

News Article: Facebook Shuts Down NYU Political Ad Targeting Study Over Use of Data Scraping Tool, FTC Steps in
Many people may have received their first exposure to the concept of “data scraping” from reading about Clearview AI, which was banned from several major social media platforms for harvesting pictures of users. But the technique has its research and academic applications as well. According to Facebook, intentions don’t matter; anything that violates its scraping policy is subject to removal.
[Relates to the US]

This eAlert is intended for staff, both within Digital Health and Care Wales and other NHS organisations, who may have an interest in Information Governance issues that affect the NHS in Wales. If you have any articles which you feel would also be useful to colleagues, please feel free to forward them for inclusion in our next edition.

Digital Health and Care Wales is not responsible for the contents or reliability of the linked websites and does not necessarily endorse the views expressed within them. Listing shall not be taken as endorsement of any kind. We cannot guarantee that these links will work all of the time and we have no control over availability of the linked pages.