News Article: Information commissioner Elizabeth Denham: How to be a pro-active regulator

Elizabeth Denham has done far more than most to rein in big tech. But she is alarmed at the mismatch in power between democracies and Silicon Valley - and efforts to politicise the regulator she leaves.

News Article: Amazon asks Ring owners to respect privacy after court rules usage broke law

Amazon has urged owners of its Ring security cameras and doorbells – which come with a camera and microphone – to respect neighbours' privacy after a court ruled their use broke data laws.

News Article: Professional footballers threaten data firms with GDPR legal action

Hundreds of footballers have threatened legal action against the data collection industry, which could change how information is handled. Led by former Cardiff City, Leyton Orient and Yeovil Town manager Russell Slade, 850 players want compensation for the trading of their performance data over the past six years.

WASPI News: WASPI has released a new version of the ISP template

The updated ISP template contains minor changes to reflect the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) Data Sharing Code of Practice. Changes have also been made to the WASPI Accord and other WASPI templates and guidance.
