

25^{ain} O Chwefror / 25th February 2022

Bloomberg loses landmark UK supreme court case on privacy

The supreme court has ruled against Bloomberg News in a landmark privacy case that will make it harder for British media outlets to publish information about individuals subject to criminal investigations

Only ever use black bars to redact text, warns security researcher

A researcher has warned that text in a document should only ever be redacted using black bars and photo editing software, and that using any other method could result in data being leaked.

Scots cop on trial accused of data protection breach after 'accessing own file'

Hamilton Sheriff Court heard an Acting Sergeants ID showed she had viewed a crime report about herself four times in one day.
[Relates to Scotland]

More than 80% of UK businesses paid ransomware demands in 2021

The vast majority of UK businesses infected with ransomware ultimately paid the ransom, making it the country most likely to pay cyber criminals in such attacks and twice as likely compared to the global average.

This eAlert is intended for staff, both within Digital Health and Care Wales and other NHS organisations, who may have an interest in Information Governance issues that affect the NHS in Wales. If you have any articles which you feel would also be useful to colleagues, please feel free to forward them for inclusion in our next edition.

Digital Health and Care Wales is not responsible for the contents or reliability of the linked websites and does not necessarily endorse the views expressed within them. Listing shall not be taken as endorsement of any kind. We cannot guarantee that these links will work all of the time and we have no control over availability of the linked pages.

Os nad ydych eisiau dderbynnu y'r e-Newyddion yma, Cysylltwch DHCWInformationGovernance@wales.nhs.uk

If you would prefer not to receive this regular eAlert, please contact DHCWInformationGovernance@wales.nhs.uk

