Gov Press Release: UK's digital watchdogs take a closer look at algorithms as plans set out for year ahead

The four digital watchdogs – the Competition and Markets Authority, Financial Conduct Authority, Information Commissioner's Office and Ofcom – today invite views on what more is needed from regulators and where industry should step up.

News Article: Danske Bank Fined for GDPR Violations, Customer Data Held for Longer Than Legally Allowed

Danske Bank, the largest bank in Denmark and a former Fortune Global 500 member, is facing a fine of 10 million Danish kroner for General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) violations pertaining to data storage. [Relates to Denmark]

News Article: UK's army recruitment system closed since March after data breach

The enrolment portal has been offline since mid-March, when it was shut as a precaution when data relating to an estimated 120 army recruits was discovered being offered for sale on the dark web.

News Article: Amazon's Astro Raises Questions About Privacy in the Home

Amazon's Astro home robot probes deeper into our lives than the e-commerce giant's existing technology, like its Ring security cameras and Alexa voice assistants. Astro's array of features, including cameras, sensors and onboard AI, raise privacy concerns, especially because the robot is designed to make us love and trust it.
