UK data regulator ICO 'considering' complaint about Dentsu data breach

Those employees whose details have been disclosed would only have a claim for compensation if what has occurred is a breach of data protection obligations, the main one of which is to maintain adequate security. The fear of the consequences of personal details being leaked can in theory lead to a claim for compensation, but it can't be purely speculative.

Personal details of Tate galleries job applicants leaked online

It's very disappointing and disillusioning," he said. "You spend time putting in all this sensitive information, salaries from previous jobs, home addresses, and they don't take care of this information, and have it floating around in public.

How Prepared Are You for the Inevitable Data Breach?

The responsible protection of vast quantities of personal information (names, addresses, phone numbers, credit card details, tax returns, medical history etc) which is held by organisations has now become a global problem which affects governments and corporations worldwide and has financial and reputational consequences.
