ICO News Article: ICO reprimands Surrey Police and Sussex Police for recording more than 200,000 phone calls without people's knowledge

The Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) has issued a reprimand to both Surrey Police and Sussex Police, following the rollout of an app that recorded phone conversations and unlawfully captured personal data.

Our work with the Department of Health and Social Care and Welsh Government around the NHS Covid app is a prime example. The app will be officially decommissioned on Thursday, after a fall in the number of users across England and Wales. It marks the end of a journey that began in the pandemic, and saw as many as 30 million people download the app.
