

Management of Records

Corporate Information

Table Two

Corporate information refers to information generated and received by the organisation other than clinical / care (patient) information. The term describes the records generated by the organisation's business activities, and therefore will include records from the following areas of the organisation:

- Estates / Engineering
- Financial
- Information Management and Technology (IM&T)
- Personnel / Human Resources
- Purchasing / Supplies